CURRENT COMMENT.

According to the Chicago Tribune's table the total number of persons who committed suicide in the United States during 1898 was 5,920. In 1897 there were 6,600 suicides.

PROF. DAYTON C. MILLER, of Case school, Cleveland, O., has constructed an instrument which will measure to one twenty-millionth of an inch. The principle is waves of light.

THE government fast mail a short time ago made the run from New York to San Francisco in 97 hours and 55 minutes, including all stops, being ar average speed of 37.2 miles an hour.

THE Greeks have decided to exclude all bachelors from their parliament. They reason that an unmarrried man has no stake in the commonwealth and that if he is represented he really should expect nothing further.

GREATER CHICAGO is in sight, steps having been taken to secure legisla-tion to consolidate the city and county governments and abolish the township organizations. To accomplish the desired result an amendment to the constitution will be necessary.

THE newspapers of Rome recently announced that a wealthy American woman had had a gold snuff box, inorusted with diamonds, made by one of the best jewelers of Rome, as a New Year's offering to the pope, and put a check for $50,000 inside it.

THERE was a conference at the interior department at Washington the other day between Secretary Bliss and certain officials over Indian territory problems and it was decided to appoint a superintendent of schools and inaugurate a system of thorough edution in the territory.

THE Sacramento Bee recently publishes the details of one of the greatest engineering problems ever originated in California. It is nothing less than the diversion of the flow of the Yuba river for hydraulic mining. It calls for the condemnation of many thousands of acres of land and the construction of many miles of main canals and levees.

A DJT. GEN. CORBIN, in a recent letter to Chairman Hull, of the house military committee, compares the cost of the proposed army reorganization under the Hull bill, reported to the house, and the present regular military establishment. The adjutant general gives the present cost of the regular army at $24,443,480 and the cost under the proposed Hull bill, $82,053,865.

GEN. CLEMENT A. EVANS, who was chairman of the @mmission appointed by the governor of Georgia in response to a resolution adopted by the last leg-Islature requiring the members to secure information as to the location of the graves of confederate soldiers who died in northern military prisons, reported that about 22,000 confederate dead were buried in northern states.

GEN. JOHN BARON left Washington on the 6th for Porto Rico to undertake the supervision of education in the island. As superintendent of freed-men under Gen. Grant he organized schools in several states and was for 16 years United States commissioner of education. He was consulted in shaping the educational systems of Japan, Egypt, Bulgaria, Chili and other South American countries.

CIRCUIT JUDGE SETTLE created a sensation at Bowling Green, Ky., the other day by his charge to the guand jury. The charge was on the sulject of gambling. The judge instructed the jury to return indictments for every kind of gambling, saying that it made no difference whether it was progressive euchre, played in the parlor of a private residence for prizes, or whether it was with chips across the green cloth of a gambling den.

A MONUMENT is to be erected in memory of Charles Floyd, a member of the Lewis and Clark expedition, who died near the present site of Sioux City, Ia., August 20, 1804, while on his way with the party to the head waters of the Missouri river. Floyd was the first United States soldier who died on the "new Louisiana purchase" and was one of the foremost characters in the history of the northwest. His grave is the only visible mark of the Lewis and Clark expedition. Congress is to be asked for $10,000 for the monument.

THE largest railroad station in the world has been opened to the public at Boston. The depot can receive 4,000 in 18 hours. The shed and yards under roof cover 35 acres and shelters 30 miles of rails. It was built at a cost of $14,000,000. There are 698 switches controlled by a signal system. The train shed will hold 404 ordinary passenger coaches at one time. The platforms and build-ing can comfortably hold 100,000 people. The four other large depots in the order of their size are in Bombay, St. Louis, London and Glasgow.

THOSE members of congress who are opposed to Mr. Roberts of Utah are not certain as to how to prevent Mr. Roberts from taking his seat in the house at the opening of the Fifty-sixth congress. While the sensibilisixth congress. ties of the people may be shocked and popular protest excited by the proposi-tion that a polygamous Mormon is to be admitted to a seat in the United liam Watson and her parents never States congress, it is not clear whether, under the practices of congress, Mr.

Roberts can be denied his seat, however numerous the protests and however numerous the protests and however numerous the moral ideas of been effected. The capitalization was been effected.

The Sixteenth Governor of Kansas Inducted into Office by Taking the Oath.

CEREMONIES OF THE INAUGURATION,

The Retiring Governor Introduces His Suc cessor in a Few Digolfied Words-The ch of Gov. Stanley-A Governor's Salute Fired by a Battery of Artil-

Topeka, Kan., Jan. 10.-At noon William Eugene Stanley, the sixteenth governor of the state of Kansas, was inducted into office by taking the oath before Frank Doster, chief justice of the supreme court. At 10:55 the new officers and their escorts took seats reserved for them on the right of the speaker's stand. On the rostrum in front of the stand were seated Gov.

GOV. WILLIAM E. STANLEY.

Leedy, Gov. Stanley, ex-Gov. Morrill, ex-Gov. Lewelling and Chief Justice Frank Doster. Gov. Leedy was in good form and speech and approached his final duty with dignity. He spoke without manuscript, in strong voice, though a little husky from the effects of a recent cold. In substance, he said:

Citizens of Kansas, we are assembled here -day to witness the induction into office of those whom the people of Kausas have chosen to succeed the administration of the populist party. I bespeak for them the same consideration accorded the administration of the populist party of Kausas. I take pleasure to introduce to you the governor of Kausas.

Cheers followed the brief speech of Gov. Leedy. Gov. Stanley left chair and, raising his hand, said:

The whole world is getting ready for the acrent of the new century. The years are fille with a spirit of fraternity. One of the greates nations of the old world is advocating a general fisarmament in anticipation of the time whe armies shall beat their swords into plowshare and their spears into pruning hooks. The greatest nation of the new world, in the mids of unequaled commercial victories, has turned aside from business pursuits long enough to do for humanity the most unselfish act that has been done since the man of Galilee gave Himself for others.

Kansas is in touch with all the hope the present brings and will style and decedent.

In the song of triumph and is getting ready to greet the new century with a shout of wellsome. Its tollers on the farms, in the workshop, at the bench, on the railroad, behind the sounter and in the mines are prosperous, conented and happy.

Kansas demands a good administration of her representatives—that is unquisationed; the lifficulty is to know what their idea of a good government is. Some would build on the foundation of conservatism and would build so strongly in this direction that in their judgment the structure they would build would be as strong as the everiasting hills. Some would build on the foundation of radicalism—and make an edifice so secure that the gates of heil could not prevail against it.

The growing spirit of fraternity must bring these elements together and public servants must serve all alike. Friendshio will bridge

these elements together and public servants must serve all alike. Friendshio will bridge chasms, remove obstacles and head differences May and we must all be friends. Differences will exist, but they must not lead to estrangements. Out of all colors and tongues and trades and creeds Kansas is forming a strong citizenship and if the union is characterized by kindness and forebearance, it will be as prosperous as it

We are fast learning that in politics as in geometry, the straight line is the shortest distance between two points, and that the best rect way is the right way: and with words of praise for all that is good in the past, congratulating the outgoing administration for much of good that it has done, the incoming administration ers. asks for the support and encouragement that has been given those that have gone before. and with this support it turns to the work before it with confidence and hope.

As he closed his speech, Gov. Stanley said: "Mr. Chief Justice, I am now ready to take the oath of office," and the brief words by the magistrate respond- Potatoes-Home grown, 30c per bu ed to by Mr. Stanley made a new governor and closed the second populist idministration of Kansas. As the nev rovernor was taking the oath, a governor's salute began firing from the oattery of artillery stationed in the idjacent yard.

REVISION IN MISSOURI.

very Law on the Statute Books Will B Repealed, Reintroduced and Re-Enacted at the Present Legislative Session

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 10. -Repreentative Pope, chairman of the com nittee appointed to arrange upon a says that the work of the last revision was a bungling job and that this time he work will be done right. LOST BOY'S BODY FOUND.

For Several Days and Nights Bundreds of Men Searched for Hugh Mc-Afec's Little Son

De Soto, Mo., Jan. 10.—The excitement over the failure to find the lost child of Hugh McAfee culminated yesterday in large additions to the searching parties from De Soto and the surrounding country and the inauguration of more systematic work. About two o'clock the body of the little boy was found by Charles Boyne, of De Soto, who came near stepping on it, in plan for the revision of the statutes, a field about 300 yards from a house occupied by a farmer named Donaghue, and about 14 miles from the child's home. It was lying, face down, in a muddy corn furrow. Its little hands were clutched full of mud. To reach roduced and re-enacted. This will this place it had gone through a threeoe the biggest undertaking ever atstrand barb-wire fence, two rail fences and tall prairie grass higher than its head. The search for the child began Tuesday evening, when it was missed Both night and day hundreds of men on foot and on horseback, have been searching for the boy.

A Colored Murderer Electrocu New York, Jan. 10.—Billy Decker, colored, was put to death by electricity in Sing Sing prison to-day for the murder of his white wife at Tottenville. The current was turned on at 11:23 and at 11:27 he was pronounced dead. Two shocks were given him. After the current had been turned on the mask fell from the dying man's face. Otherwise the execution was a

THE SENATORIAL INSTINCT.

A Detroit Cat That Was Likened Unto the Luxurious Statesman,

"I guess I in t about have the blue-ribbon cat story," declared one of the employes at a Detroit depot. "We had a big tom here that was a favorite for months. He never did anything worse than to whip an occasional dog that came prowling about, or scratch some kid that wanted to carry him off. But he became fat, lazy, self-important and impudent. He asserted a right to be on top of the desks, and resented the noise of a typewriter when he wanted to take his afternoon nap.

on top of the desks, and resented the noise of a typewriter when he wanted to take his afternoon nap.

"So another of the boys and myself slipped Tom into a box car, and sent him to Chicago. There was no chance for him to escape, for it was a tight box car, with the doors scaled, and billed through.

"Two weeks later there came a carload of furniture from Chicago, and after it had been shunted to a side track the work of unloading was begun. The men scattered when they saw a pair of fiery eyes working toward them through chair legs and over carpet rolls. While they were arming themselves with coupling pins in order to resist the attack of some wild 'critter,' a long, lean and hungry-looking cat sprang out, blinked till he became accustomed to the light and then trotfed to my office. There he gave me an ugly leer, winked at the clerks and curled up on a window sill in the sun. I accepted old Tom and now call him 'Senator."

"Why Senator."

Ever and anon Burbank would make a frantic grab for something above his head, and then looked disappointed.

Lambert watched him reach up balf a dozen times, and then edged his way through the crowd to where his friend was being jostled about.

Just as he got there somebody gave a lurch somewhere, and the people began to sway about as they do in crowds where there are nervous or mischievous persons who insist on pushing.

Burbank was almost carried off his feet, and he made a frantic effort to grasp the invisible something that he had previously endeavored to find above his head.

"See here, old man," exclaimed Lambert, "what are you trying to find up there?"

Burbank gave a start, as if he had just been aroused from a trance, looked sheepishly at his friend, and then replied:

"It's force of habit. This crowd makes me think, every little while, that I'm in a street car, and, involuntarily, I reach for the strap, whenever the people begin to lurch."—Cleveland Leader.
